

Membership Terms and Conditions

1. Membership Period

- 1.1 Membership with the Fire Industry Alliance operates on an annual basis commencing on the date of payment and concluding after 12 months.
- 1.2 Members may elect to pay their membership fees either:
(a) in full for the 12-month membership period, or
(b) via interest-free monthly instalments, payable over the membership period.
- 1.3 By selecting a payment method, the member agrees to pay all applicable membership fees for the full membership term.

2. Membership Fees

- 2.1 Membership fees are determined based on the member organisation's gross profit turnover.
- 2.2 Members must provide accurate and truthful information regarding their gross profit turnover when applying for or renewing membership.
- 2.3 The Fire Industry Alliance reserves the right to request supporting information or documentation to verify the declared gross profit turnover where reasonably required.
- 2.4 The Fire Industry Alliance reserves the right to review and reassess a member's gross profit turnover classification at the time of membership renewal. Where a reassessment occurs, the applicable membership fee may be adjusted accordingly.

3. Automatic Renewal

3.1 All memberships will automatically renew at the conclusion of the membership's 12-month period unless cancelled in accordance with these Terms.

3.2 By maintaining an active membership, the member authorises the Fire Industry Alliance to automatically renew the membership and process the applicable membership fees using the previously nominated payment method.

3.3 Members will be notified of renewal and any applicable fee adjustments prior to the renewal date where reasonably practicable.

4. Cancellation of Membership

4.1 A member may cancel their membership by contacting the Fire Industry Alliance directly.

4.2 Cancellation requests must be submitted via the Fire Industry Alliance's nominated contact method, which may include email or written notice.

4.3 Where membership fees are paid via monthly instalments, cancellation will terminate future renewals but any outstanding instalments for the current membership term remain payable.

4.4 Membership benefits will cease upon cancellation and at the end of the current paid membership period, unless otherwise determined by the Fire Industry Alliance.

5. Fire Industry Alliance Rights

5.1 The Fire Industry Alliance reserves the right to:

(a) amend membership fees, classifications, or payment structures from time to time;

(b) review member eligibility and turnover declarations at renewal;

(c) update these Membership Terms and Conditions, with notice provided to Members where appropriate.

6. Acceptance of Terms

By applying for or renewing membership with the Fire Industry Alliance the member acknowledges and agrees to be bound by these Membership Terms and Conditions.
